LOCAL DEALERS IN SALT LAKE BANKS' HIGH GOOD HUMOR

Remarkable Week Just Ended Local Clearings Show Great Inin Nearly All Channels of Trade.

SALT LAKE HOMES ARE IN DEMAND

Healthy Traffic, But Homes Are Scarce.

In the face of uncertain weather, business Suit Lake City for the week just closed has been excellent. From every quarter comes the same good tidings, and the cause is due wholly to the general prosperity prevailing throughout the country, State and city. There has been no big deals consummated in the real estate domain the past week, but there has been considerable trade in dwelling houses. Homes of every description are in demand and the sales of the past week consisted of houses running in price from $6000 to $4000, with an occasional sale running from $6000 to $7000.

Big Deals on Tap.

The outlook for big deals in real estate for the near future are very promising. Nearly every large dealer in the city has something up his sleeve which will drop out before long some large Main street properties, it is understood, will change hands before long. While change hands before long. While the proposed changes of properties, the main object is for the purpose of erecting new buildings.

Few Homes to Be Had.

The main drawback to the real estate men The main drawback to the real caute man at present is the failure on their part to supply the demand for homes required by applicants. At least 20 new houses are needed a present. There are a few vacant houses in the city, but as all people are not alike and as some want this style and some that these lew vacant houses are not enough to go

May Was Banner Month.

The wholesale fruit and produce business closed one of the largest weeks of its history Saturday night. The demand for fruit and produce has been enormous the past week Judging from the business now being transacted, the fruit and produce men anticipate that June will be the banner month in the history of their busines in this city. Receipts for the week, notwithstanding the puzzling weather, have gone away ahead of those of the corresponding week last year.

Bir Stores Were Busy

Big Stores Were Busy.

The large department stores have had an exceedingly good week, considering the conditions of the weather. Rusiness is reported to be steady in all lines being handled with an increase over the corresponding week last year of 25 per cent. This increase, it must be remembered, is against odds, for the weather last year at this time was all that could be desired, whereas this year rain has marred about one day out of three. Clothing had a good sale during the past week. All grades and kinds in stock were dealt in Shirts, hats, neckwear and outing apparel were in demand and experienced a good sale.

Farm Tools in Demand.

Farm Tools in Demand.

Hardware men report a very heavy week in their business. Farm tools are in great demand, also milling machinery, harness and congruction material. Radiroad contractors have placed large orders for all kinds of supplies needed in their lins. The hardware men are working until late into the night in order to fill orders, which are from four to five weeks behind.

The demand for shoes continued throughout the week. It is nip and tuck for the local dealer to get from the Eastern manufacturers a sufficient supply of footwear to meet the demand. The manufacturers are greatly rushed in the present time on account of the orders being sent in for shoes for San Francisco and other coast communities.

nmunities Lumber at Top Notch.

Lumber, which has been vary high for some time, will not, it is reported, go any higher. There is a great deal of building now going on both in the city and in the State. The high price of material, while a drawback to building has not affected to any great extent the persistent march of progress of Utah. The lumber yards of the city are well filled with all kinds of building material, the demand for which is steady and strong. Latest Quotations.

BETTER RECORD THAN DENVER HAS MADE

Business Property Is Enjoying Object Lesson Provided for Local Business Men as to the Future.

> Bank clearings have at all times been regarded by business men as perhaps the best evidence of the amount of business transacted in a community that is to be had. To such an extent does this belief exist that samples are not lacking where young and enterprising settlements have made especial efforts to awell these figures in various ways, with results at times altogether unlooked for. Case in Point.

Case in Point.

A case in point is that of a Middle Western town, comparatively new, whose business men were particularly anxious to create a highly favorable impression of their resources in the mind of an Eastern capitalist who had evinced rather more than ordinary interest in the possibilities of their town from a manufacturing standpoint. All those citizens having the handling of checks in any amount took every precaution to the end that no single house, with the result that for a period of weeks the daily clearings far and away surpassed all previous efforts. The sudden increase did not seem natural, however, and upon an investigation of the circumstances the Eastern man decided upon another location for his proposed industries.

Is Good Advertisement.

Is Good Advertisement.

In older and better established cities such a thing is, of course, impossible, and clear-ngs remain as they have always been the bear ndex to business conditions. An unusually large aggregate for a single month is f quently made to afford an excellent adverti ment, and much good to the community often the result.

Salt Lake Ahead. The following comparative statement of clearings for the first four months of 1905 and 1906 should prove of a highly encouraging nature to Sait Lake business men, showing as it does an aggregate volume of business but little behind that of Denver, and with Sait Lake something like $2,000,000 ahead for the month of January, 1906

January, 1906 February, 1908 March, 1908 April, 1908 Future Is Assured.

That the future of Salt Lake as a great city is assured, goes almost without eaying. Its natural location and the immense area of country directly tributary can be regarded almost in the light of a guarantee of this, but at the same time the city should always have an eye to the main chance to the end that this excellent conclusion be arrived at with just as little delay as possible.

The work being done along these lines by the Merchants and Manufacturers association and other commercial bodies is to be highly commended, but it is the great rank and file of the people upon whom the real work must fall. Just at this time Salt Lake is gaining in population at a rate surpassing that of any previous period, and no opportunity should be lost to prove to these new grivals the wisdom of their choice.

Figures Are Incentive.

The figures quoted above should prove an incentive to every citizen who has the good of the city at heart, to do all in his or her power to help the good work along to the end that the greater Salt Lake so enthusiastically talked of may become a tangible fact, and that at no distant date.

NEAR PRESTON, IDAHO

Farming Land in District and Short Line Track Seriously Damaged.

The Blackburst reservoir near Preston, Ida. broke its walls early yesterday morning and a torrent of water flooded hundreds of acres of the best farming land in the district. So swiftly flowed the torrent that horses, cattle and other live stock were swept away and hundreds of acres of crops were utterly ruined.

Short Line Track Damaged. The track of the Oregon Short Line was fruindated and washed out in several places, and the morning train was delayed for hours while repairs were made. The flood bas also left the track soft in a number of places, so that trains will have to go slow until the readbed is thoroughly hardened.

Wagon Roads Washed Out.

Wagon roads in the vicinity have also been completely washed out. The district covered by the flood embraces several miles in extent, but at this time the damage cannot be estimated. The reservoir is owned by Johnson Brothers, and formerly belonged to Black-hurst Brothers of Salt Lake, who purchased the farm upon which the reservoir was located from Bill Head.

Rio Grande Orders Equipment. The Denver & Rio Grande has ordered nine day coaches, five chair cars and four dining cars from Barney & Smith, 250 ore dump cars of 100,000 pounds capacity and 250 coke dump cars of 80,000 pounds capacity from the Na-tional Coal Dump Car company.
